Nationalistic Murtad Movement Of Taliban

Abu Huraira reported: The Messenger of Allah, peace and blessings be upon him, said, “Whoever rejects lawful obedience to the leader and divides the community and dies in this state will have died upon ignorance. Whoever fights under the banner of one who is blind, raging for the sake of tribalism, or calling to tribalism, or supporting tribalism, and is killed in this state will have died upon ignorance. Whoever rebels against my nation, striking the righteous and wicked alike and sparing not even the believers and does not fulfill the pledge of security, then he has nothing to do with me and I have nothing to do with him.”

[Sahih Muslim : 1848A]

The Taliban and Islamic State declared war on each other in January 2015

By Dawood Azami

How many Taliban special forces are fighting Islamic State?

According to Taliban sources, the special task force, part of the Taliban's special forces command, was set up in early October and has more than 1,000 fighters - better equipped and trained than regular Taliban and with the sole aim of crushing IS.

The Afghan Taliban say they have unleashed "special forces" in an increasingly bloody battle with fighters from the rival, so-called Islamic State (IS) group. The Taliban's dominance and monopoly on insurgency in a region home to numerous local and foreign militant groups is being challenged by IS, which has been gaining some support. Who's winning the war of the militants?

Scholars of the da’wah said in clarifying the depiction of wala that constitutes kufr:

Whoever aided the mushrikin against the Muslims and helped with his wealth in order for them to wage war against the Muslims, out of choice, disbelieved [Ibid, v. 1, p. 476]

Shaykh ‘Abdul-Latif ibn ‘Abdir-Rahman ibn Hasan said in clarifying the obligation of bara from the people of shirk and how that is linked to the testimony of ‘la ilaha illallah’:

A person can hate shirk and love tawhid, yet deficiency comes from the lack of bara’ah from the people of shirk and abandoning muwalat of the people of tawhid and supporting them. Thus he would be following his whims, entering into shirk from branches that destroy his din.

And what he produced of neglect of tawhid, its foundations and branches, does not align with the man it desires. So he neither loves nor hates for Allah’s sake. Nor does he ally and oppose for the Majesty of He who created and fashioned him. And all of this is taken from the testimony that there is nothing worthy of worship except Allah. [Ad-Durar as-Saniyyah, v. 8, p. 396]

Shaykh ‘Abdur-Rahman ibn Hasan said in relation to the issues that nullify tawhid, amongst them being muwalat of the mushrikin:

The third issue: muwalat of the mushrik, inclining towards him, supporting him, aiding him with the hand, tongue, or wealth, as He said, “So never side with the disbelievers” (28:86). And He said, “He (i.e., Musa) pledged, ‘My Lord! For all Your favors upon me, I will never side with the wicked’” (28:17). And He said, “Allah only forbids you from allying with those who have fought you for [your] din, driven you out of your homes, or supported [others] in doing so. And whoever allies with them, then it is they who are the wrongdoers” (60:9) {ar-Rasail wal-Masail an-Najdiyyah, v. 4. p. 291}

Afghan Taliban look for support of Hazaras whom they once persecuted

According to the Taliban, Mahdi has been active in their ranks for some time.

Taliban spokesman Zabihullah Mujahid told Arab News that he has “his own group, a large number of followers (in Balkhab) and has for years contributed to jihad.”

He added: “The issue has just caught media attention, but he has been there in the field for a long time”

“The choice of Mahdi is a clear message to the Hazara that the Taliban are no longer against them,” Safi said, adding that the group is now striving to win the favor and support of minorities ahead of any future agreement with the Afghan government.

I testify that they are mushrikūn, and how can they not be mushrikīn? If you ask them did the Prophet (sallallāhu ‘alayhi wa sallam) sin, they would say yes. And Allāh forgave him what preceded of his sins and what follows. And if you say to him, did ‘Alī sin? They would say no. Thus whoever says that he has disbelieved’” (ibn Battah, Sharh as-Sunnah).

Tehran buddies up to the Taliban

03.02.2021

During talks with Islamist Taliban leaders in Tehran, Iran and the militant Afghans agreed that the US was to blame for the ongoing violence in Afghanistan.

Iranian and Taliban representatives have met repeatedly for this very reason. And that is not all. Tehran also supplies the Taliban with weapons. According to reports in the web magazine "War on the Rocks," senior Iranian politician Ali Shamkhani admitted this fact to the Afghan government on December 2018. The magazine quoted him as saying that they were "only small arms, not combat weapons."

At the time, Shamkhani said the arms served to increase the safety of the Taliban in the Iranian-Afghan border region. There are numerous smugglers in the region and there are frequent illegal border crossings. Various rival Sunni militant groups, such as the Jundullah, are also active in the area.

Iran and the Taliban share a slew of common interests. Both are striving to achieve the complete withdrawal of the US military from Afghanistan and both are fighting against the so-called Islamic State (IS) terror organization, which has also gained a foothold in Afghanistan.

Declared Iran A Islamic Country & Received Weapons from Them to Fight Muslims Which Shamkhani Accepted In December 2018

Shaykhul-Islām [ibn Taymiyyah] said in As-Sārim al-Maslūl,

“Whoever combines insulting him (a companion) and making ‘Alī an object of worship, or that he was with the Prophet, and Jibrīl made a mistake in delivering the Message, then there is no doubt from his kufr. Rather, there is no doubt in the one who refuses to make takfīr of him.”

And he himself (ibn Taymiyyah) said in Al-Masdar, “And whoever believes that they committed apostasy after the Messenger of Allāh except a small group of them (12 individuals), or that in general they were evil-doers, then that is no doubt from his kufr. Because he is denying what is contained in the Qurān in its apparent meaning stating the pleasure [of Allāh with them and the praise [from Allāh] upon them.

Certainly, the one who doubts this kufr, then indeed his kufr has been made apparent.” Then he said, “And this kufr is known by necessity from the Dīn of Islām.”

Muhammad Naeem (right), a spokesman for the Office of the Taliban of Afghanistan, speaks during the opening of the Taliban Afghanistan Political Office in Doha, Qatar, on June 18.

Taliban Created their Headquarters in Tawagheet lands & Called for Peace with Tawaghet who are fighting muslims around the world while being allied with Kuffar {See their spokesman Zabiullah Murtad Interview} where is Kufr Bit Taghut ? Did Sahabha Did Peace deals with Munkarieen Zakat & Muslimah kazab even though many arabs apostatized & fought against them. So How Can These Murtadeen Taliban could make peace deals with Apostates who are Munkarieen Sharia & fighting muslims all around the world while being allied with Kuffar

Shaykh al-Islam Muhammad ibn Abdul-Wahhab (d. 1205H)

Verily those tawagheet, whom people believe, that it is obligatory to obey besides Allah – they are all kaffir apostates from Islam. “How can you say no?! When they make halal what Allah made haram, and made haram what Allah has made halal, and they seek to corrupt the land with their words, and actions and support? And whoever argues for them, or is critical of the one who does takfeer of them, or claims that this act of theirs – although wrong – still doesn’t take them out of Islam to kufr, then the least that one can say of this arguer is that he is a faasiq, because the deen of Islam cannot be upright except by seeking innocence from those people, and doing takfeer of them.”

[“Ar-Rasaa’il ash Shakhsiyyah” , p. 188]

And whoever opposes the Messenger after guidance has become clear to him and follows other than the way of the believers - We will give him what he has taken and drive him into Hell, and evil it is as a destination
[An Nisa : 115]

Let not believers take disbelievers as allies [i.e., supporters or protectors] rather than believers. And whoever [of you] does that has nothing [i.e., no association] with Allah, except when taking precaution against them in prudence.¹ And Allah warns you of Himself, and to Allah is the [final] destination.
[Al Imran : 28]

O you who have believed, do not take the Jews and the Christians as allies. They are [in fact] allies of one another. And whoever is an ally to them among you - then indeed, he is [one] of them. Indeed, Allah guides not the wrongdoing people.
[Al Maida : 51]
